Shakloh Mag is a free monthly PDF entirely visual magazine acting as a space of expression and promotion for Arab artists, designers, typographers, and photographers. Each issue is announced with a theme, and contributing artists are asked to create a visual in accordance with that theme.

The word “Shakloh” is Arabic for “looks like.” Artists create what that theme “looks like” in their heads, and have it fly on the World Wide Web for all to download and experience. Shakloh Mag is a chance for Arab artists to experiment outside the strict confinements of commercial work-for-hire, speak of their hopes, dreams, and ideologies in the one language unconfined by geographical, political, cultural, or racial boundaries; art, and have it all exposed to the world.

Shakloh Mag is electronically published by Ganzeer:

MY LOVE

Love is such a beautiful thing. Whether it's a person, a pair of shoes, or a cupcake, the very feeling of loving someone/something is unmatched. I think the worst feeling in the world is injustice, but I bet a lot of people may want to argue with that, but no one will ever argue how awesome the feeling of love is.
