ARAB ARTS INTERNET MAGAZINE:

ISSUE #5 مجلة إلكترونية للفنون العربية

#5

سول

JANUARY 14, 2006 presented by GANZEER.COM

Shakloh Mag is a free monthly PDF entirely visual magazine acting as a space of expression and promotion for Arab artists, designers, typographers, and photographers. Each issue is announced with a theme, and contributing artists are asked to create a visual in accordance with that theme.

The word “Shakloh” is Arabic for “looks like.” Artists create what that theme “looks like” in their heads, and have it fly on the World Wide Web for all to download and experience. Shakloh Mag is a chance for Arab artists to experiment outside the strict confinements of commercial work-for-hire, speak of their hopes, dreams, and ideologies in the one language unconfined by geographical, political, cultural, or racial boundaries; art, and have it all exposed to the world.

All contributions remain the complete property of their rightful artists, who are credited at the end of each issue.

Shakloh Mag is electronically published by Ganzeer:

SOUL

soul P (sl)

n.

- 1 The animating and vital principle in humans, credited with the faculties of thought, action, and emotion and often conceived as an immaterial entity.
- 2 The spiritual nature of humans, regarded as immortal, separable from the body at death, and susceptible to happiness or misery in a future state.
- 3 The disembodied spirit of a dead human.
- 4 A human: “the homes of some nine hundred souls” (Garrison Keillor).
- 5 The central or integral part; the vital core: “It saddens me that this network... may lose its soul, which is after all the quest for news” (Marvin Kalb).
- 6 A person considered as the perfect embodiment of an intangible quality; a personification: I am the very soul of discretion.
- 7 A person's emotional or moral nature: “An actor is... often a soul which wishes to reveal itself to the world but dare not” (Alec Guinness).
- 8 A sense of ethnic pride among Black people and especially African Americans, expressed in areas such as language, social customs, religion, and music.
- 9 A strong, deeply felt emotion conveyed by a speaker, a performer, or an artist.
- 10 Soul music.
